

Planning your safari

Rifles and ammunition

- Select a rifle that you are comfortable with.
- A 300 calibre with a good telescope and 180 grain bullets are sufficient
- Binoculars and shooting sticks.
- Permits to prove ownership of rifle and ammunition must be presented at arrival to obtain a temporary import permit
- The temporary import permit is cancelled again when leaving the country

Clothing

- Dress in layers in order to take off sweaters as the temperature rises during the day
- Light cotton clothing or jackets for early mornings and late nights
- Comfortable boots
- Take one set of clothing in your hand baggage in case your luggage gets delayed
- Do not bring excessive clothing, a daily laundry service is included in the daily rate

General

- Sun block and lip balm
- Camera, charger/extra batteries, extra memory cards
- Converters for camera chargers
- Sun glasses, hats, gloves and scarves

Insurance

- Travel insurance
- Medical insurance
- Ensure that both are informed that you are travelling outside your country

Travelling/in transit

- ALWAYS book baggage and rifles through to end destination
- Check your baggage tags and insist on the above
- Ensure that airlines you are travelling with have baggage agreements
